

Take the next step toward financial independence

We are excited to announce new, exciting benefits brought to you through your HonorHealth 403(b) Retirement Plan at Empower. Everyone's financial situation and goals are different, but no matter where you're at, an Empower financial professional can meet with you to work toward the future you want. Best of all, there is no cost and no minimum balances for these services.

Set up a one-on-one consultation with a licensed Empower representative

Marc Delphine, Retirement Counselor

Marc Delphine is a licensed retirement counselor at Empower with over 20 years of experience helping participants. Marc will work with you one-on-one to discuss your financial goals and provide education and solutions to help you make the informed decisions about your financial situation.

This is a great option if you:

- Want to start saving for retirement.
- Want to learn more about the services available through your retirement plan.
- Want more information about the investment options available to you.
- Have questions about what to do with an account from a previous employer.
- Would like assistance learning how to use your online account.

Marc will be onsite at HonorHealth hospital campuses monthly where you can stop by and speak with him one-on-one.

*Appointments scheduled online may be with another Empower Retirement Counselor.

Joan Stoddard, CFP®, Empower Financial Planner

Joan Stoddard, CFP® is a financial planner at Empower. Joan will create a comprehensive financial plan based on your goals and priorities.

Financial planning can assist you with:

- Identifying and prioritizing your financial goals.
- Retirement savings and income recommendations.
- Organizing your finances.
- Insurance and estate planning.
- Saving for education.
- Budgeting and debt management.

The process starts with a no-obligation initial consultation where Joan gets to know your unique situation and goals. If you enroll in the service, Joan will look at the topics most important to you, with your full financial picture in mind, and develop a straightforward plan with clear next steps. You will meet ongoing to monitor the success of the plan and make any adjustments.
